Huyen Nguyen-Stewart parents were brought to America from Vietnam through a faith-based organization. She was born in Shreveport, LA and raised in Arlington, TX.

Her career in law enforcement began in 2010 when she enlisted in the United States Army National Guard as a Military Police Officer. After basic training she served on the Tarrant County College Police department for two years. In 2012, she married her husband Christopher Stewart and they relocated to Newport News, VA where she was a police officer for seven years. During her time with the Newport News Police Department she served on the ethics committee, recruiting, community outreach, mobile field force and was a detective in the robbery, burglary, and auto theft unit. Huyen obtained an AA in Liberal Arts from Saint Leo University.

In 2020, Huyen transitioned to her career at Northwestern Mutual where she does comprehensive financial planning and specializes in financial planning for first responders. She wants to continue to serve others in her community by protecting their quality of life by providing excellent financial planning to obtain financial security.

Huyen and Chris just celebrated their 9th wedding anniversary! They both live in Carrollton, VA with their two dogs. Huyen and Chris enjoys taking vacations to different countries and learning about their culture.
