Dr. Perry L. Austin is a Veteran of the United States Army and a native of Bridgeport, Conn has over 20 years of experience in small business, community awareness, leadership, spiritual & personal development.

As a true entrepreneur and small business owner Dr. Austin started out as an authorized Dell dealer in which he earned his company $100,000 in the first year. He also owned a small business consulting firm, named AE Consultants, which mission was to develop productive teams in the marketplace by educating leaders to focus on being relational rather than transactional in their business practices.

Dr. Austin has served on many community boards as a voice for the people. Serving with the NAACP, WIB (Work Investment Board) and The Life of Christ Foundation of New Jersey. To include being an advisor on the medical board for Bryant and Stratton College. He also served on the board of the Virginia Housing Community and Development Corporation as economic development chairman. Presently he is serving the Christian Business Coalition of Hampton Roads Virginia as their Chaplain.

Currently Dr. Austin is the founder and Chief Spiritual Officer of Leverage Academy of Leadership and Business. A non-profit 501(c)(3) leadership and business coaching academy. The vision is to recruit and develop the next generation of entrepreneurs' and future leaders either traditional and/or non-traditional. Its mission is to develop future leaders and business owners who will make an impact within the culture of our communities and their core values.

Dr. Austin has earned two bachelor's degrees one from the University of Maryland with a degree in Communications. An a degree in Project Management with a minor in mobile technology from ITT Tech. Dr. Austin also received an Honorary Doctrine in Christian Leadership from Rodney Jackson International Bible College & Seminary – a fully Accredited School of Theology in El Paso Texas.

Dr. Perry L. Austin is one of a kind! His ability to see the unseen and develop people in their gifting is incredible. He has the ability to coach, inspire, increase, celebrate, motivate to move his clients/students into another dimension of their life. He moves at a speed that is necessary to the individual as well as the groups of people he trains. His motto is to "Learn It, Live It, Lead It".
